

LCCI at IATEFL 2010

The International Association of Teachers of English as a Foreign Language (IATEFL) gathered for their annual conference and exhibition.

This was the 6th year that EDI has been present at IATEFL, which was held at Harrogate 7-11 April, where we showcased our range of LCCI English language qualifications, and highlighted the employer and global recognition of LCCI International Qualifications.

The event was also an opportunity to raise awareness of new developments within the extensive range of LCCI International Qualifications.

This included the on-screen version of Level 2 English for Business (releasing next month) and the new JETSET Level 7 qualification, which will be available from the end of September 2010.
